

LAFAYETTE'S SOCIAL SCENE

Fête

PATRICIA GANNON

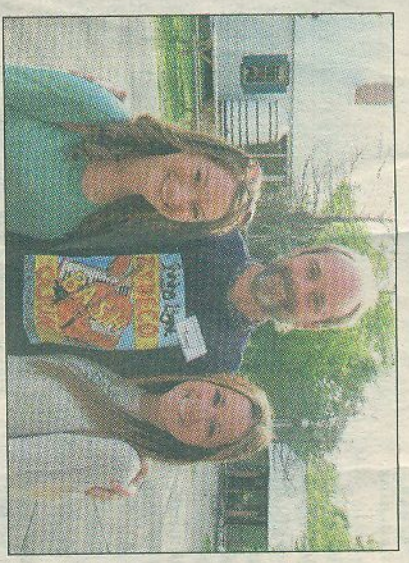

Allons à Lafayette

Was this fun or what?

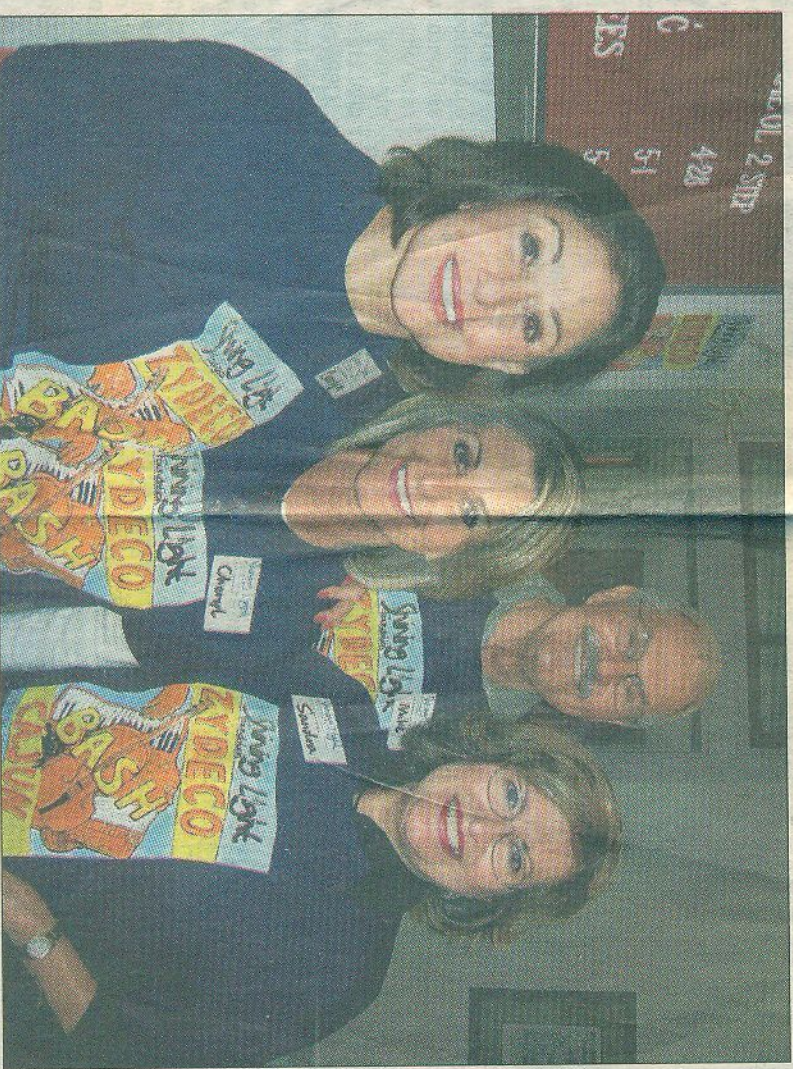

Shining Light Foundation packed them in at Vermilionville for a little zydeco fais do-do only no one went to sleep, that's for sure. Raising funds for children's academic, cultural and personal enrichment, the nonprofit had a play list a mile long and even managed to get accordioniste extraordinaire Roddy Romero to fly down from Canada. If you haven't heard him sing "Big Mamou," then you need to. Doing what Acadiana does best was zydeco dance legend John Sullivan, zydeco trouble Curley Taylor and Corey Ledet, Brandon Delafosse of Wayne

Curley Taylor, John Sullivan, Corey Ledet

Kabby Deblieux, Tony Moore, Rebecca Ferrante

Roddy Romero